Making Cards for Our Troops

In the June/July 2020 issue, I wrote a Someone Cares about my nonprofit, Making Cards for Our Troops. Our all-volunteer group makes and ships unsigned Christmas and all-occasion cards to deployed troops so they have cards to send to loved ones. I asked Guideposts readers to join in. Thanks to you, Making Cards for Our Troops took in 76,012 cards last year—a 1,000 percent increase!

Readers nationwide continue to make cards for us. We also get notes from military members who are so grateful to have cards for family. What an exciting journey! Thank you, Guideposts, for being such a pivotal part of our growth.

E-mail us at cardsfortroops2398@gmail.com to learn how you too can pitch in.
